Arrest made in tire slashing spree

Posted on Wednesday, November 21 @ 14:59:21 EST by editor

Halton Hills - Georgetown: Since the beginning of November, police in Halton Hills (Georgetown) have received numerous complaints of motor vehicle tires being slashed in the area of Sinclair Avenue.

During the evening hours of Friday November 16th 2007, uniformed officers arrested the culprit responsible and he has since been charged with twenty-one (21) counts of Mischief under $5000.00 and one (1) count of carrying a concealed weapon. Some of these charges relate to an occurrence that happened in March of 2007 at a KIA Dealership on Guelph Street.

Charged is 44-year-old Douglas James MORRIS of Sinclair Avenue Halton Hills (Georgetown). MORRIS is scheduled to appear at the Ontario Court of Justice in Milton on December 18th 2007.

The Halton Regional Police Service is continuing to investigate these incidents. Anyone with information related to them is asked to contact police at (905) 825-4777 or (905) 634-1831 Ext. 2105 or by calling Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
