Halton Region's Bureaucracy set to grow, with your tax dollars

November 10, 2006

Halton Hills: This week Halton Region moved forward with its plans to create an Energy From Waste (EFW) Facility when it issued a Request For Proposal (RFP) to five consulting firms, as chosen through an Expression of Interest process. The successful firm will work with staff on developing a business case to present to Regional Council in the spring of 2007.

Halton - Halton Hills: When a supposedly non-bias newsprint media starts to endorse political candidates, particularly the ones who have been embedded in the existing government, it's probably time its readership took a closer scrutinizing look at that media. Under normal conditions, the newsprint media's job is to report and provide enough news to its readership, so the readership can then make an informed decision as to whom to vote for. But what if that media hasn't always reported the news, or when they have reported it, they've failed to do so in a non-bias manner? Should we still consider it as a reliable, credible source of information?
