This season - avoid Holiday Tragedies

December 6, 2006

Halton Hills: Tragedies can happen in a moment's notice. Accidental household fires and the number of fire deaths are at their highest during this time of year. Unfortunately it is the result of what so many of us look forward to every year, the beautiful, famed Christmas tree. The hectic pace, at which Christmas seems to direct our lifestyle, makes for needless and unnecessary injuries and deaths.
